Free seniors' rights booklet available from Sen. Toy

Lansing – Sen. Laura Toy (R-Livonia) announced today that the booklet “Changes and Choices: Legal Rights of Senior Adults” is available free at her district office in Livonia.

The book provides information on legal issues of concern for senior citizens and their families, including information on choosing a nursing home, consumers' rights, pension rights, landlord-tenant law, and state government agencies that work on senior issues.

Toy's District Office is located at 29440 Joy Road in Livonia. The office is open Monday through Friday from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. The office can be reached by phone at 734-466-4257.
